Welcome to Amici!

We have a fantastic opening concert for our 9th season, featuring guest violinist Alex Hargreaves of the Turtle Island Quartet, with a concert exploring the way folk music coexists happily in classical chamber music. Our December concert has traditionally been a Baroque concert and this year we stretch that a little with a Bach Family concert with works by Johann Sebastian Bach and three of his sons. February is Black History month and we will be at The Shedd Institute for the Arts with works by three eminent African American composers, ranging from the late 1700s to 2016. In April the strings get kicked off the court and Victor is joined by wind colleagues for a wonderful concert of three works Victor loves by Mozart, Svoboda, and Poulenc. We end the season in June with Brahms' String Quintet No. 1 and Piano Trio in C Minor No. 3, Op. 101.
